

MEADOWLARK HEARTH SEED FESTIVAL 2019 OPEN HOUSE:

RSVP for Camping and Meals OR drop in through the day for classes

Donations to the Living Environment Foundation gratefully accepted.

Friday August 30: arrive before dark to set up tents if you are camping here. Sign waiver for the farm and LEF.

SATURDAY AUGUST 31 2019:

8: am breakfast: oatmeal

OPTIONS on Saturday:

9 am: attend Scottsbluff farmer's market

OR after breakfast:

8:30 hike in Wild Cat Hills to look at area wild plants and speak about how wild plants are related to agricultural crops

12:30 lunch from the farm

1:30 swim in the pond Relax

3: pm Tour of the farm, continuing the theme about how wild plants relate to the development of vegetables

On your own for supper:

8:00-9:30 stay as long as you like: star gazing with Nathan who knows the sky like the back of his hand

SUNDAY, Sept 1, 2019:

8:00 am breakfast oat meal

9:00: comparing vegetable families in order to understand what is needed for vegetable seed growing.

12:30 lunch from the farm

1:30 swim in pond or break or rest or seed harvest

3:00 wet threshing

4:00 DANCING (threshing) ON THE SEED with local music

6:00 pot luck: bring a dish or help grill food from the farm

More music and dancing

8:00-9:00 Star Gazing: stay as long as you like

MONDAY SEPT 2, 2019

Watch milking 6:00 am

7:30 breakfast oatmeal

8:30- until noon learning about selecting biennial plants for seed, look at book display about seed and pick up some vegetable seed

Noon: we say good bye so we can prepare for the week! Thank you for coming!

SEED FESTIVAL 2019

MEADOWLARK HEARTH FARM

120024 Everett Drive

Scottsbluff, NE 69361

308-631-5877

meadowalarkhearth@gmail.com

August 31 through Sept 2 2019:

Hands on harvest and threshing of vegetable seed:

At Meadowlark Hearth

Western Nebraska's only organic vegetable seed farm

www.meadowlarkhearth.org

This year we are harvesting and/or threshing:

peas, cabbage, carrot, cucumber, tomato, pepper, onion, beet, radish, lettuce

Come have fun and learn! Bring Friends and family

FOR ACCOMODATIONS

rustic camping available and meals RSVP

appreciate donations to LEF for meals

fly in to Scottsbluff Airport and we can pick you up or local people can drop in throughout the weekend

Join us, Experience and Learn

Sponsored by Living Environment Foundation

www.livingenvironmentfoundationNE.org

