Liability and Indemnification Waiver

Meadowlark Hearth Living Environment Foundation and Farm does not carry a huge liability policy to protect you in case of an accident; you need to provide for that yourself. Paying out huge sums to a third party to transfer risk will add considerable cost to the event. Our policy is that you can either retain the risk yourself, or make arrangements for your own third party coverage - this includes travel, trip cancellation, medical, etc. We do all in our power to make this an affordable, safe and fun event. Supervision of anyone under 18 is a parental responsibility. We remind you that activities may include working with sharp or hot materials (Fire making, Knife work, flint knapping, blacksmithing, etc.) in an outdoor setting without guardrails and warning signs. Parents are responsible for keeping minors from playing on or around farm implements and machinery. Food and food preparation is provided as a service to you. All instruction and services are provided by volunteers. We do everything in our power to keep the event a clean and healthy place to learn and socialize.
